Last words to Grandpa Cyril

Dear Grandpa Cyril,

Sometimes I think that I am cursed to only have Grandfatherly figures enter my life for brief moments in time; although those are some of my most cherished memories. You were the last Grandfather that I had the privilege and honor to meet and be guided by, and your support never wavered.

You are an old warrior, and I am but a young one, ....I wish we had communicated more often, met in person more often.

I miss your sense of humor, your wise counsel, your example of love and compassion; but I thank you for that one first and last visit you paid to me in the wee hours of July 10th 2008 as I sat alone awake in the dark; before you continued on your journey in the circle of life.

To forever honor your memory I have declared you a National Hero and wherever I go, whenever I speak to the people - your name shall live on in all of our hearts and minds.

Until we meet again Grandfather,
your servant of the People,

Damon Gerard Corrie

Founder/Leader of the Pan-Tribal Confederacy of Indigenous Tribal Nations and Hereditary Chief of the Eagle Clan Lokono-Arawaks
