EAGLE CLAN ALLY WINS ELECTIONS IN FORMER REBEL STRONGHOLD

Friday, June 5, 2009

Confirmation was received today that democratic elections in the North Rupununi Region of Guyana that were held recently have produced a new Chief of Toka Makushi Territory - Mr. Michael Mendonza.

Chief Mendonza is a long time ally of the Eagle Clan and can be described as a 'Modernist Pro-Traditionalist' - meaning "One who incorporates beneficial technology whilst maintaining and promoting inherited cultural practices to the fullest extent still possible".

Toka was the Rebel headquarters in 1969, when an indigenous rebellion led by the Makushi tribe under Rebel General Taman Davis (who still lives in exile in Brazil) was launched in the Rupununi region of Guyana; against years of Guyanese non-indigenous Police brutality.

General Taman Davis is the Great Uncle of Chief Mendonza, the population of Toka is 300 persons - and the community still faces various forms of official discrimination for the valiant fight they waged 40 years ago.
